

Imperial Springs Health joins Healing Hotels of the World

Diagnostic technologies & medical consultations in a hot spring reserve

Profound medical and personalized healing journeys utilizing TCM, naturopathy and hot springs

27 May, 2024, Cologne, Germany -- Healing Hotels of the World is proud to announce the addition of Imperial Springs Health to their membership portfolio. This state-of-the-art facility with luxurious accommodations is nestled in the breathtaking Conghua Hot Springs Reserve. At the heart of Imperial Springs Health offerings is a commitment to holistic healing. The resort integrates Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM) and German naturopathy into its comprehensive wellness programs.

Imperial Springs Health also prioritizes preventative healthcare. Their team of experienced doctors utilize cutting-edge diagnostic technologies to identify potential health concerns and develop personalized health plans tailored to each individual. Supported by a dedicated personal health manager, guests will engage in a holistic program inspired by the Three Regimens of Clearing, Regulating, and Nourishing. This approach equips guests with practical tools to maintain physical, mental, and emotional well-being sustainably.

Services also include gastric and dietary health, gynecological and women's lifecycle health, osteopath and sports rehabilitation, cardiovascular and chronic disease management, family concierge medicine, psychology and counseling, as well as precision health screenings. Each guest receives a personalized health plan designed to address their specific needs, ensuring a transformative healing experience.

Anne Biging, Founder and CEO of Healing Hotels of the World, shares her transformative experience: "After just four days of thorough examinations with their exceptional team of doctors, I emerged feeling rejuvenated and renewed."

Their accommodations reflect the grandeur of the Tang Dynasty, offering a blend of traditional Chinese aesthetics and elegant Art Deco styling. Guests can choose from 100 suites or 37 garden villas. Some suites and villas feature private swimming pools, hot spring pools, saunas, and even spa rooms.

The entire team of doctors at Imperial Springs Health “is thrilled to embark on this meaningful journey with Healing Hotels of the World. This partnership signifies a profound alignment of our core values and aspirations, particularly in the realm of holistic healthcare. Together, we aim to pioneer new paradigms in wellness, merging ancient healing traditions with contemporary innovations. Our collaboration is dedicated to providing comprehensive, transformative care, ensuring our guests experience unparalleled wellbeing. We look forward to contributing to a global community that prioritizes health and nurturing, and to sharing our unique approach to integrative healthcare with the world.”

Furthermore, the resort features six distinctive restaurants and bars, offering a diverse array of international cuisine alongside authentic Cantonese and Chaozhou dishes. For those who prefer dining in privacy, 24-hour in-room dining is available, allowing guests to enjoy gourmet meals in the comfort of their suite or villa.

For those seeking active pursuits, the resort offers a challenging hilltop golf course with driverless golf carts, hiking trails, and various art and cultural experiences. The largest private art museum in South China is also located on-site, providing guests with a unique cultural immersion.
